

Objectives

Physical Education aims to develop physical and psychological competence and knowledge to use these to perform in a wide range of activities associated with the development of an active and healthy lifestyle. It is a non-traditional sports and techniques, and can help students to learn about different cultures.