Lecture Title : Development and Achievements of NCC

Summary

The National Cadet Corps is the Indian military cadet corps with its Headquarters at New Delhi, Delhi, India. It is open to school and college students on voluntary basis. National Cadet Corps is a Tri-Services Organization, In 1948, the Girls Division was raised in order to give equal opportunities to school and college going girls. The NCC was given an inter-service image in 1950 when the Air Wing was added, followed by the Naval Wing in 1952. Same year, the NCC curriculum was extended to include community development/social service activities as a part of the NCC syllabus at the behest of Late Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru who took keen interest in the growth of the NCC. So we have learnt a great deal about the structure of NCC, its history, its origins and now how it has been organized and how its activities are conducted all over the country. We have learnt about each and every aspect of this great organization. I hope that the details provided were of some use to all of you.
