

Objectives

To acquaint the students about the history of physical education in ancient greece with special references to the evolution of olympic games