

Objectives

Gymnastics is a systematized form of exercise designed to produce effect on the organism. In today gymnastics, those exercises are included, where the rules are framed internationally.