Lecture Title

Handball - Rules and Regulations

Summary

The organizer shall propose venues, and once the IHF has checked them, pass them on to the participants who have registered. IHF representatives shall inspect the playing halls and check the event's organization, on dates proposed by the organizer Responsibilities. The tournament director is responsible for overseeing the entire tournament. He, or his delegated representative, shall be present at all times. Before all tournaments, all officials and players should be briefed on rules and on local court hindrances or other regulations. I hope this technical information was of some use to all of you. Thank you so much for watching.
