

Objectives

To teach students about the history of Gymnastics, how this mother sports originated. It is also prepared to teach the systemized form of exercise required for balance strength and control.