

Objectives

To acquaint the students with the concept of Mental Health.

To help learners understand the characteristics of the mentally healthy individual.

To equip them with the etiology of poor mental health

To acquaint the learners with various strategies for improving mental health.