

Objectives

This course provides an introduction to the key concepts and terminologies of relay races. It also explains the origin and history of relay races along with its various techniques.