

FAQs

Q1. What is the meaning of post graduate professional preparation?

Ans The meaning of post graduate professional preparation is a training program of master degree level in physical education and it is the addition of graduate level. The master degree itself includes the essence of master (specialization) in particular area of this field.

Q2. Explain any one of the purpose of post graduate study.

Ans To provide high quality leader-

Post graduate study provide highly quality leader with control over the frontiers of knowledge related to physical education and sports concluding with a degree of human relationship dedicated to the service humanity.

Q3. What should include in pedagogical techniques of teaching?

Ans It should include the contents like learning to adopt the various pedagogical techniques (teaching methods) and stages of various kinds of teaching in different teaching situation.

Q4. List the postgraduate courses running in physical education with different names and structure?

Ans Such Post Graduate Courses are-

1. M.P.Ed. (Master in Physical Education/Sports Sciences/Physiotherapy/Sports Medicine, Yogic Science (two years degree) with dissertation.
2. Master of Physical education (M.P.Ed.) Two years with dissertation.
3. Master of education (Physical Education)

Q5. What are advantages of method of teaching?

Ans Advantages-

- Very specific learning targets
- Students are told reasons why content is important - helps to clarify lesson objective
- Relatively easy to measure student gains.

Q6. Write effective use of 'Lecture Method'

Ans The lecturer must possess up to date knowledge of the concerned activity. The lecturer style of description and explanation should be simple, lucid, pleasant, and understandable.

Q7. Why integration of technology in education is no longer a "new" idea?

Ans Because technology has become such an integral part of society, it is necessary to integrate its use in education in a variety of ways. By using technology students have the ability to enhance the learning experience of students and research information within just a few minutes to help learn about any subject possible in depth.

Q8. List down some materials of modern technology use in study

Ans Desktop, Laptop, Internet, Projector, DVD/CD/Floppy and Mobile

Q9. What are essential professional relations to be maintained by leaders in physical education and sports?

Ans

1. Relationship with Administrators
2. Relationship with Colleagues (Professional and others)
3. Relationship with Administrative Personnel
4. Relationship with Student/Other Client groups

Q10. What should be applied in dealing with administrative staff of the organization?

Ans Democratic human relations must be applied in dealing with administrative staff of the organization. Such as secretaries, assistants and store keeper and other service providers as human being in need of self-respect parallel to those of sports and other teaching staff.