

OBJECTIVES

After studying this lecture the students will be able

- to understand the necessity of planning and choosing the right career.
- to understand the basic qualities desirable to be successful as a teacher.
- to learn the importance of understanding and playing to one's own strength.
- to understand the role and responsibilities of physical educator and to abide by its high ethical standard.
- to understand that the basic principles of successful teacher and leader are the same.