

Assignment

1. List out the available schools in your neighbourhood and check how many physical education teachers work.
2. List out the non-teaching opportunities in your community that physical education and sports professionals can lend in their services.
3. Write an essay about your opinion on physical education and sports professional preparation program stressing mostly on those areas you want changes.
4. Prepare the type of physical education activities and program you consider were suitable for junior and high school students.
5. Through personal interview collect from at least five physical education teachers at least five advantages and disadvantages of working as PET in school.