

Objectives

After studying this lecture the students will be able to understand -

- the available physical education teaching opportunities.
- the commonly categorized two form of teaching avenues in physical education and sports.
- the general curriculum contents for physical education program from elementary through high school.
- the general criteria for teaching in professional institution of sports.
- some of the important and common areas for professionals in physical education and sport to find job opportunity.