

Objectives

On completion of the topic, one should be able to understand

- the objectives and brief history of professional preparation
- the physical education as a profession
- the sports management and common components of professional preparation