

Objectives

After learning this lesson, the students will be able to understand:

- the term democracy and its contribution of physical education to the society
- the complex reality of Physical Education and Sport
- the links, relations, connections between Physical Education and democracy