

FAQs

Q1. Where does good education leads to?

Ans: Good education can lead to a good quality of life for the people and it builds for them a strong foundation for their career and success in life.

Q2. Write down the forces that affect educations in the twenty-first century.

Ans: Forces affecting education in the twenty-first century are:-

- a) Population Diversity
- b) Globalization
- c) Technology
- d) Religious and Spiritual Variables

Q3. Name the device which enhance that curriculum grew rapidly during the last half of the 20th century.

Ans: Audio–visual devices enhances curriculum to grow rapidly during the last half of the 20th century.

Q4. Write down the three major geographical aspects that influence the educational systems.

Ans: The three major geographical aspects that influences the educational system directly are, climatic conditions, population distribution and land configuration.

Q5. What does religious loyalties dictate?

Ans: Religious loyalties also dictate aims, content and even methods of instruction in education.