

FAQs

- Q1. Explain any one of the purposes in regard to professional preparation at Undergraduate level.
- Ans- To provide knowledge of the management of the sports program- Undergraduate study in physical education provides an experience to conduct various physical education and sports activities in reference to teaching and sports management. Undergraduate study provides a person whose job entails planning, organizing, staffing, directing and controlling to be performed within the context of an organization whose primary or predominant product or service is sport and sport-related.
- Q2. How does one become an ideal citizen in under graduate study?
- Ans Undergraduate level study provides good leader of the society in a specific area, which can control, contribute and dominate that area with the knowledge and power.
- Q3. What is a cultured citizen?
- Ans It is firmly believed that the teachers of physical education should possess the qualities required of a cultured citizen. He should be well prepared in his area of specialization. He should know how to establish friendly relationships with others, enjoy art and literature, develop his creative abilities and contribute to leadership in community living. He should use his freedom responsibly. The success of his role as a citizen is reflected in his role as a teacher.
- Q4. How does one provide knowledge of administration of various activities in undergraduate study?
- Ans Undergraduate study in physical education provides an experience to tabulate and compile the proper results and records of various physical education and sports activities and also help to understand about the various types of stock and issue registers and other records in a systematic manner to provide a professional output.
- Q5. What are the acquire skills that should be acquired in the course of undergraduate study?
- Ans They must acquire skills in a variety of physical activities and participate on one or more college teams, which involve expenditure of great deals of time and energy obviously, the students who can successfully accomplished requirements must possess a good academic background, physical skill, physical vigour and determination well above the average.
- Q6. Write admission requirement of undergraduate study
- Ans To select candidates, it is very important for successful professional preparation in physical and motor abilities, and ability to work hard must be examined carefully. Adequate high school background or scientific background should be there otherwise the deficiency will have to be made up during professional preparation, which take place lot of time.

Q7. Explain any one of the personal experience in undergraduate study.

Ans VERBAL EXPRESSION :- Competency in English language or competency in two or more languages should also be tested; otherwise, students will face difficulty in following the teachers.

Q8. What do you mean by undergraduate?

Ans The professional preparations are known as “Under Graduate” which denotes the training period of bachelor’s level and after qualifying he/she becomes graduate professional.

Q9. What is the backbone of undergraduate level preparation in physical education?

Ans Intramural program is the backbone of undergraduate level preparation in physical education. So knowledge of intramural meet and their successful organization is an essential matter for graduate students.