

Objectives

After studying this lecture the students will be able to

- evaluate, apply and communicate research findings to improve professional practice
- know the lifelong process of education
- gather the specialized knowledge that will prepare them to exert the leadership quality