

Glossary

Assess : To make a judgment about something

Emerging : Becoming widely known and established

Feasibility : The state of being possible

Macro : Involving use on a large scale

Priority : To make something the most important thing in a group

Synthesize : To combine things in order to make something new

Scorecard : A report that gives information about the status or success of someone or Something