

Objectives

On completion of the topic, one will be able to understand;

- common health problems at school levels
- components of school health services
- activities of the school health services