

Objectives

The main objectives of this module are to make the students understand

- the need to promote physical, mental, emotional and spiritual well being.
- the need to promote the development of positive health attitude and practices.
- the need to create a supportive environment to take care of each other, our communities and our natural environment.
- to promote a risk-free environment.