

Objectives

On completion of this chapter, students should be able to

- understand the health related issues in the world
- study the role of international health agencies
- identify key global institutions working in the field of health
- explore the initiatives of WHO, UNICEF and UNDP
- discuss the initiatives of international health agencies in the field of sports