

Assignment

1. Write a brief note to fight against superstition and prejudices in the community regarding bad health practices.
2. Explain how health education encourages behaviour and maintain the function of body.