

Objectives

1. To know the basics of health education.
2. To have a consciousness about health.
3. To help people make their own choices about patterns of living.
4. To help general public about promotion of healthy living.