

Objectives

- > To explain the common methods of transmitting health education.
- > To highlight the advantages and disadvantages of interpersonal and mass media communication means.
- > To explore the role of various methods of communication at the grass root level.
- > To explain common teaching aids used for effective communication.