

Objectives

The objectives of this lesson are to make the students understand:

1. the organisational set-up, functions and duties of health services at the national level.
2. how to achieve an acceptable standard of good health amongst the general population of the country.
3. the comprehensive primary health care services network.
4. the schemes, projects and programmes being implemented for the improvement of the health services.