

Summary:

Over the past few years increased attention was given to Adapted Physical Education and Sports information regarding program direction was presented and the importance and characteristics of the providing services in the field was recognized.