

Glossary

IEPs:- Individual Educational Programmes

IFSPs:- Individualized Family Service Plans

Class Format:- Class format is an important instructional consideration related to teaching style

The ACTIVE:- All Children Totally InVolved Exercising

Large-Group Instruction:- In this format, the entire class participates at the same time under the direction of one or more teachers or teaching assistants.

MOVE:- The Mobility Opportunities Via Education(MOVE)

Mixed-Group Instruction:- Within a mixed-group instruction approach, a variety of formats are used during the same class period.

Peer-Teaching or Tutoring :- When peer teaching or tutoring takes place, lower skilled students are taught by their more highly skilled classmates or by highly-skilled students from other classes.

Teaching Stations (Task Teaching):- Teaching stations allow for students to work on more than one task at the same time.

The Instructional episode:- The Instructional episode is based on principles of learning derived from applied behaviour analysis and, although used most extensively with children who have autism, is effectively used with a range of students.

The Data –Based Gymnasium: - The data based gymnasium is a prescriptive instructional model that provides information on effectively managing the learning environment for individuals with severe disabilities.