

Objectives

The main objectives of this lecture are:-

- to understand the employment system for differently abled people.
- to understand the aims and goals of adapted physical education.
- to understand how to organize an adapted physical education programmes.
- to understand how to identify students who need adapted physical education.
- to understand how to counsel students about their adapted physical education programmes.