

Objectives

On completion of this chapter, one should be able to

- explain the meaning of behavioural disorders
- talk about the adjustment problems among people with disability
- express about the emotional problems faced by people with disability
- describe the basics of personality disorders and its classification.