

Objectives

On completion of this chapter, you will be able to:

- elaborate on the importance of physical education and sports for people with disability
- be able to make modifications on the teaching plans and methods and programming in physical education and sports.