

Objectives

After the completion of this lecture one will be able to understand:

- the guiding principles of Adapted physical education Programmes.
- the aims and goals of adapted physical education.
- how to organize an adapted physical education programmes.
- how to identify students who need adapted physical education.
- how to counsel students about their adapted physical education programmes.