

Assignment

Q1. What is recreation? Explain the factors that condition recreation.

Q2. What are the misconceptions of recreation?

Q3. Interview people in your locality about recreation and prepare a report to understand the level of understanding of recreation among the people within your community. Prepare a small questionnaire based on the misconceptions to find out if the people within your community too have the same misconceptions (you can use the interview method).