

Objectives

The main objectives of this lecture are:

- to understand the basic knowledge in organizing a recreation program
- to understand the importance of planning an activity program
- to learn the important elements in conducting successful program
- to understand the role and responsibilities of recreation leadership
- to understand factors involves in outdoor activity recreation program.