

FAQs:

1) What do you mean by character education?

Ans. Character Education refers to a program that were designed to inculcate positive core values

2) What is the aim of private agencies recreation program?

Ans. A private agency recreation program mostly aims at promoting good relationship among the members.

3) What is booster clubs?

Ans. Booster clubs as the name suggest refers to opening membership to those who are sincerely interested in the organization.

4) What is the motto in fund raising?

Ans. “Don’t ask people to donate to the club-ask them to join the club”.

5) What are the advantages of using professional counsel in fund raising?

Ans. Professional counsel in fund raising campaign make it faster and cheaper.

6) What are the strategies for fund raising?

Ans. There are three general strategies viz. stage a ‘quick-fix’, employ a professional, and, develop an annual fund-raising campaign.

7) What is the simple reason for raising funds?

Ans. One needs to raise money because of its scarcity.

8) How does one plan for funding program?

Ans. To understand and plan for funding, it is necessary to evaluate how the public relate to the products.

9) What are the private agencies that provide recreation for its members?

Ans. These were organizations such as pensioners clubs, industrial or employees group, residential community etc.

10) What are the various government agencies involve in public recreation?

Ans. The governmental agencies such as school boards, housing authorities, police departments, libraries, museums and youth and sports affairs plays vital roles in community recreation.