

Objectives

The main objectives of this lecture are:

- to understand the financial aspects involved in recreation program
- to understand the common sources of funding for recreation program
- to understand the general guidelines for fund raising
- to understand the advantages of hiring professional fund raisers
- to understand the basic principles for generating support for program.