

Objectives

The main objectives of this chapter is to acquaint the students about the:

- best use of attractive abilities, interest and expertise in the teacher-learning process;
- make classroom teaching effective according to the interest and capabilities of the pupils;
- encourage flexibility in grouping the pupils; and
- increase the quality of the instruction given to the students.