

Objectives

The main objectives of this chapter are to acquaint students about:

- the different teaching methods;
- the difference between teacher-centered method and learner-centered method of teaching; and
- the different learning styles of the learners.