

Frequently Asked Questions (Faqs)

1. What is teaching aids?

Ans: Any device which supports, supplements or reinforces the teaching method adopted by certain teacher to effectively communicate certain items of information to students is known as teaching aids.

2. What is the difference between teaching aids and teaching method?

Ans: Any device which supports, supplements or reinforces the teaching method adopted by certain teacher to effectively communicate certain items of information to students is known as teaching aids whereas the style of presentation of content in classroom is known as teaching method.

3. Establish the relationship between teaching aids and a teacher.

Ans: Teaching aids is a tool in the hands of a teacher to engage the various senses of the learner and cause meaningful learning in the later.

4. Name the different types of visual teaching aids?

Ans: The different types of visual teaching aids are graphic aids, display board, three-dimensional aids, chalk board, silent films and slide projector.

5. What do you mean by visual aids?

Ans: Any instructional aids that can be seen but not heard are called visual aids.