

Glossary

1. Projected teaching aid: They are pictures shown upon a screen by use of a certain type of machine.
2. Non-projected teaching aid: Teaching aids which are used without any projection.
3. Graphic aid: Any image or visual representation that assist the reader in understanding the text which accompanies the visual aid.
4. Display board: A board shaped material that is rigid and strong enough to stand on its own, and generally used paper or other materials affixed to it.
5. Three dimensional aids: Actual objects or their scale down or blown up replicas as an aid for instruction.