

Frequently Asked Questions (Faqs)

1. What are models?

Ans: Models are non-projected three-dimensional visual aids with recognizable imitations of real things or abstract thing.

2. What are the advantages for effective use of overhead projector?

Ans: The advantage for effective use of overhead projector are:

- i) It makes teaching learning activity more illuminative, illustrative and impressive.
- ii) It helps in capturing the attention of the learners.
- iii) It also helps in saving a great deal of the teacher's time used in drawing or writing.

3. List out some of the suggestions for effective use of motion picture.

Ans: Some of the suggestions for effective use of motion picture are:

- 1. Teachers should highlight the purpose and value of the motion picture prior to showing.
- 2. Teachers should also asked students to make a note of concepts they do not understand for clarification after the showing of the motion picture.

4. What do you understand by self-experiment?

Ans: Self-experiment is an activity teaching aid in which the students learn by engaging in some useful activities. These aids facilitate learning through sight and sound as well as through doing.

5. What is a motion picture?

Ans: Motion picture is a traditional projected audio visual teaching aids that possess all the advantages inherent in projected still pictures plus the significant feature of motion.