

Frequently Asked Questions (Faqs)

Q1. Is questioning a teaching device?

Ans: Questioning is an important device of teaching. It plays a very important role in learning, teaching and testing.

Q2. What are the three levels of classroom questions?

Ans: Questions are broadly divided into three levels as under: lower order questions, middle order questions and higher order questions

Q3. What is the biggest pitfall in the art of questioning?

Ans: Focusing on small number of pupils and not involving the whole class.

Q4. Which type of questions is best for classroom motivation?

Ans: Introductory or Preliminary questions are the best type of questions to motivate a class.

Q5. What are the essentials of effective questions?

Ans: Effective questions should be purposeful, clear, brief, natural, thought provoking, limited in scope and adapted to the level of the class.