

FAQs

Q1. What is an equipment?

Ans. Equipment is the term used for those items that are not considered expendable but are utilized over a period of years, such as parallel bars, steel dumbbells, audiometer, hurdles, horizontal bar, goal posts, running treadmills, ergo meter bicycle etc.

Q2. Write the tools used to facilitate the teaching of health, physical fitness and physical education.

Ans. Equipment and supply are the tools used to facilitate the teaching of health, physical fitness and physical education.

Q3. What are supplies? Give suitable examples.

Ans. Supplies are those materials that are expendable and need to be replaced at frequent intervals such as shuttle cocks, tennis balls, T.T. balls, cricket balls, volley balls, basketballs, football etc.

Q4. What are consumable equipments?

Ans. The consumable items are supplies that are subject to quick wear and tear through use and are replaced instantly or at frequent intervals. This includes shuttle cock, T.T balls, nets, bats, lawn tennis balls, sticks, footballs, hockey balls, volleyballs, cricket balls, aquatics equipment etc.

Q5. Explain any one procedure for the purchase of equipments.

Ans. After the selection process is over the Physical Education teacher shall prepare the supply order, get it approved by the head and dispatch to the concerned firm for execution of the supply within the given period.

Q6. What are non-consumable equipments?

Ans. Non-consumable or permanent equipments including goals posts(football, hockey, handball) uprights, hurdles, basketball poles, net ball poles, lawn tennis poles, gymnastics apparatus and equipments, strength training equipments etc.

Q7. How many types of tenders depend on the bulk of purchase and total amount involved?

Ans. There are two types of tenders i.e. limited and open tenders depending on the bulk of purchase and total amount involved.

Q8. Describe any two principles of purchase.

Ans. The two principles of purchase are as follows;

1. The objective of the institution in general and the department of physical education in particular, and the number of students actually participating, budget allocations, economy measures etc. should be taken into account.
2. The view of the teacher faculty of physical education, coaches and even outstanding sports students must be duly obtained, considered and valued.

Q9. Who prepared an inventory of sports equipments to be procured based on their past experience and keeping in view the future needs?

Ans. The teachers of physical education and coaches should prepared an inventory of sports equipments to be procured based on their past experience and keeping in view the future needs