

Summary

In this chapter we can summarize that, equipment and supplies represent the tools that the teacher or a coach must have to facilitate teaching in the gymnasium, aquatics, laboratory, or track and field. Funds spend wisely to purchase and maintain these modern teaching aids help to make a positive difference in the result of educational process. Further, underequipped or ill-equipped institutions, classes, players, etc. rarely succeed in achieving their pre-determined objectives. Therefore the objectives, requirements of the program and their position must be assessed from time to time.
