

Objectives

On completion of this chapter the students will be better prepared to:

- define the term plan and planning
- recognize the importance of planning
- express the concept of training plan
- describe the important principles of planning
- classify the different types of training plan
- make more use of time.