

Objectives

On completion of this chapter the students will be better prepared to:

- recognize the meaning of periodization
- recognize the importance of top form
- identify phases of top form and its relation with periodization
- identify the idea of dividing a training program into stages
- make more effective use of time.