

FAQs

1. What is pathogen?

Ans: A pathogen is a biological agent that causes disease or illness to its host.

2. Define wrist.

Ans: Wrist is defined as a complex set of bones connecting the lower arm with the hand.

3. What are the primary concern diseases of blood borne pathogens?

Ans: The primary concern diseases of blood borne pathogens are hepatitis B, hepatitis C and HIV.

4. What is a wrist fracture?

Ans: A wrist fracture is a medical term for a broken wrist.

5. What is a ligament?

Ans: Ligament is the connective tissues that connect bones to bones as a tape that holds the bones together at a joint.

6. What is the common name of distal joint?

Ans: The distal wrist joint is also commonly known as distal radioulnar joint.