

Glossary

Clients: A person or group that uses the professional advice or services of a lawyer, accountant, advertising agency, architect, etc.

Dialog: A literary work in the form of a conversation.

Kayaking: A small boat resembling this, made commercially of a variety of materials and used in sports.

Rollerblade: Trademark a type of roller skate in which the wheels are set in a single straight line under the boot.

Trigger: A small projecting tongue in a firearm that, when pressed by the finger, actuates the mechanism that discharges the weapon.