

Objectives

On completion of the topic, one should be able to understand

- the fitness program to those who are living in sedentary life style.
- the knowledge about fitness program for active population.
- the fitness programme for different age group and different fitness level.