

Objectives

Objectives of this module are

- to bring the traditional martial art of Thang-ta within the larger study of the sports science
- to impart the students a scientific knowledge of the art
- to make the students understand cultural and historical aspects of an indigenous art of sports
- to make Thang-ta find a new context of academic study and impart the students with its present day significance.