

Objectives

The main objectives are that

- running is important part of athletics.
- knowledge of mechanics and physiology of athletic training are essential for coaching the athletes.
- according to the distance, running is divided into Sprint, Middle and Long distance.
- technique and tactics are important parts of running.
- each event has separate technique and tactics.